Travel and Hotel

You are responsible for booking your own symposium travel and hotel accommodations using your JCATI project budget. A room block at the Silver Cloud Hotel University District (5036 25th Avenue NE, Seattle, WA 98105) is available until Friday, March 7. After the deadline, you are responsible for finding your own lodging.

Hotel reservation: call Silver Cloud (1-800-205-6940) and indicate "JCATI symposium 2025" room block. They did not provide an online reservation option.

JCATI pays for student travel (fly/drive) and hotel rooms. I'll work directly with your students regarding their travel plans. Any incidentals are covered by the student or your grant. Student travel and hotel should be finalized by Wednesday, February 26.

Student project poster and pitch

Your group needs to present both a project poster and pitch. I'll also inform your students.

- Poster: use the poster template on the Symposium Logistics page. Posters are 36"x24". You print and bring the poster, I'll provide poster boards, easels and clips.
- Pitch: One student from your group has 2 minutes to describe the project to the audience (they are timed). These pitches help attendees understand the breadth of JCATI projects and drive poster traffic. Keep your pitch high level-any details are for the poster session.
- Pitch slide template on Symposium Logistics page. Pitch order listed below.
- Pitch slide due to Beth (bhacker@uw.edu) by Monday, March 31.
